

ROOSEVELT IS GIVEN OVATION.

Spanish War Veterans Give the Chief Executive a Magnificent Reception— He Has No Apologies to Make.

DETROIT, Sept. 22.—The blue and gray uniforms of the Spanish War Veterans, whose third annual re-union is being made memorable and historical by the presence of President Theodore Roosevelt, is seen at every turn in Detroit today. Additional delegates and veterans are arriving on every train, and many thousands of people have come from nearby cities and towns. The day dawned warm and pleasant.

PRESIDENT AT BREAKFAST.

The President was joined by a small party of friends at breakfast, which was eaten at the Cadillac. The delegates began gathering in Light Guard Armory, the convention hall, soon after 9 o'clock. When Acting Commander-in-Chief, Urill, called the delegates to order, the floor of the armory was crowded with uniformed, soldierly-looking men. The galleries were packed with men and women who had come to hear President Roosevelt's speech to the veterans. The armory was fully decorated.

A background of maple trees formed a canopy over the platform from which the speaker addressed the assemblage. Hung from the center of the green canopy was a large flag-draped picture of President Roosevelt. The front of the platform was entirely hidden by great masses of golden red. Festoons of greenery hung from the trusses of the big hall and suspended from the center truss, was a great eagle with outspread wings made from greenery. Large white curtains hung from the gallery's edge to the main floor and these were covered with small maple branches, giving a very pretty effect from the convention floor.

A TREMENDOUS OVATION.

President Roosevelt was given a tremendous ovation when he stepped from the Cadillac and into his carriage to begin the drive to the armory. Washington and Michigan avenues were jammed with people who made the air ring with their cheers as the President drove briskly away from the hotel.

A squad of mounted police rode before his carriage and a squad of officers on bicycles circled about it.

It was a continuous cheer that greeted the President on his drive, which took about five minutes.

A stir at the door announced to those in the armory that the President had arrived. All stood up and as the Presidential party entered and walked down the main aisle to the speakers platform, a great shout went up that made the armory ring. Again and again the veterans cheered the President and he bowed his thanks repeatedly. Nor were the people in the galleries behind in their applause.

It was many minutes before quiet was restored. General Urell acting commander in chief, introduced Mayor Maybury, who eloquently welcomed the Spanish War Veterans to the city. When he mentioned President Roosevelt's name, it brought every soldier to his feet and a tremendous cheer went up. When he concluded, General Urell stepped forward and said, as he turned to President Roosevelt: "I have nothing to say, Mr. President."

MEETING OLD COMRADES.

Every man on the floor was on his feet and waving his hat as the President arose from his chair. Cheer after cheer rent the air, while President Roosevelt smiled and bowed his thanks to his former comrades.

The President expressed his pleasure at having the chance of being greeted by his comrades and greeting them in return. The men who served in the Spanish-American war, he said, if they did their duty well, were comrades and brothers from now until the end of our days. (Applause.) He said he did not need any urging to accept the invitation to attend the meeting of the Spanish War Veterans. The President spoke on the late war and said that the only complaint heard was that there was not enough war to go around. The President said the spirit that drove the men on in this war was the same spirit that made the memorable meeting of Lee and Grant at Appomattox possible.

TEST YOURSELF.

One of the first lessons that all had to learn was that there was an enormous amount of hard work that preceded any chance for heroism. The amount of hard work a man did had a great deal to do with his attaining heroism. If a man has not the stuff to endure hardship on the march, the President said, he has not the stuff in him to attain heroism.

The President said the spirit he wanted to see in a man was that spirit which makes him do his duty, great or small. He liked particularly the way in which our young men went into the ranks to do their duty as they saw it. He thought it a good thing that men of different callings should be associated together to learn the lesson of equality and brotherhood among Americans.

"It is a very good thing for an American to learn by practical experience in a way that will bring it home to him the underlying truth upon the full knowledge of which depends mainly each American's being of real use in the body politic.

"The fundamental truth of testing yourself and all your neighbors is by the essential instead of the non-essential qualities in each. He spoke of the spirit in which the people of Michigan went to the war. "It was the spirit shown," he said, "by the older among his audience, when the great war was fought.

THE SPANISH WAR.

"It was the spirit in which the people of this State and throughout the Union will show, should ever the need arise. It is the spirit that will make America greater than she is." (Applause.)

The President told of the needs of the State Militia for better weapons and said he hoped in the future to see them armed with up-to-date arms.

In conclusion the President said: "And so it is now. Our people went forth in the Spanish war, went forth to free Cuba, to give Porto Rico happiness it never had and to bring the light of civilization into the darkness of the Philippines. We are proud of the men who did the work. We intend that their work shall be done beneficially and for a good purpose. Through the advice of and the help of civilized and religious teachers of civilization among our people and in the islands, we are going to get the best results for the people of the islands and of what has been done.

WILL MAKE NO APOLOGY.

"We are going to make them more prosperous than they have ever dreamed of being during their recorded history, and now we guarantee to each man his life and liberty and his pursuit of happiness as he never could have had it if he had been under the domination of a cruel oligarchy working through the secretary of Kotonpunan.

"I don't make any apology for our soldiers on the score of good citizenship and do not make any apologies for the Spanish war or the war in the Philippines. There have been occasional deeds of wrong committed. There were 70,000 men there and some of them did not behave as they ought.

"Have we always been immaculate at home? (Applause and laughter.)

"If a man does wrong, punish him, of course. But do not make the mistake of fixing the eye on the unimportant and losing sight of the great battle.

"We have no apologies to make for what the country has done in the past four years. We are proud of it. We are proud of the great work of humanity and civilization that has been done alike in the islands of the tropic east and in the islands of the tropic west. We are proud of what our troops have done; we are proud of what our civil authorities are doing over there in the Philippines, and we are proud of you, my comrades, who did your duty when the country called you to arms. We imitate those who from 1891 to 1894 did their duty and are now imitating the men who disbanded in '95 by coming back into civil life with the firm resolution to do their duty as citizens just as faithfully as ever they did it as soldiers. I thank you."

HAD INTERVIEW WITH THE POPE

ROME, Sept. 22.—Archbishop Guidi, the Apostolic Delegate to the Philippine Islands, and his secretary, Father O'Connor of the English Church of San Salvatore, had an audience with the Pope this morning. The Pope also accorded a private audience to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Premier of Canada, and Lady Laurier, and was very cordial to them. The Pontiff showed much interest in Canada and said he had closely followed the proceedings of the Premier's conference in London.

M'ENERNEY PLEADS FOR PIUS FUND

HE MAKES A STRONG CASE ON BEHALF OF ARCHBISHOP RIORDAN'S CLAIM.

THE HAGUE, Sept. 22.—On the re-assembling today of the International Arbitration Court, in the hearing of the claim of the United States against Mexico, growing out of the Pius Fund of California, Garrett McEnerney, the legal adviser of Archbishop Riordan, resumed his address which was adjourned from September 17th. He contended that the statutes of limitation deprived the Jesuits of the control of the Pius Fund after Spain, Mexico and the Bishops of California had succeeded as administrators.

The Archbishop of California, designated as administrator by Mexico in 1840 was legally entitled to both the capital and interest.

The decision of the Arbitration Commission in 1896 condemning Mexico to pay, ought, Mr. McEnerney asserted to be considered as beyond appeal.

DOVE TO HIS DEATH

Joseph White, Aged 17 Years Meets Death in Estuary.

He Refused to Heed the Warnings of His Companions.

BRAVE ACT OF JOSEPH CUMOSH.

While swimming in the estuary near the foot of Alice street today at noon, Joseph White, a seventeen-year-old boy, took a dive from a pile into the water and failed to come to the surface again until his body was recovered by Joe Cumosh afterwards.

The drowned boy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel White who live at the foot of Alice street. He was in swimming with Dick Davidson of 609 Madison street and Frank Kotz of 259 Fourth street. The boys had been sporting in the water for some minutes, when young White announced that he was going to attempt a high dive from a pile near them.

Amid the protestations of his companions, the boy climbed upon the pile and dove off. He disappeared beneath the surface after a short wait. The boys then thoroughly alarmed boys called for help and Joe Cumosh of 524 Third street responded. Removing his clothes he plunged into the water and after a time brought up the body of White. It was too late. The boy was dead.

The water is very shallow where White made his dive and it is supposed that he struck on his head and was rendered unconscious. His companions state that he was a good swimmer. The remains were brought to the morgue, and an inquest will be held.

HIS PHYSICIAN SAYS RECOVERY IS ONLY A MATTER OF TIME.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 22.—"It seems safe to say that Senator Bard now is out of danger, and his recovery is a matter of time.

"There is no danger of a relapse," said Dr. Taggart this morning. The patient last night passed the most comfortable period of his illness. Soon after 2 o'clock the pain in his stomach ceased, and both the temperature and pulse gradually became normal or nearly so.

At 6 o'clock this morning the temperature was 98.2 and the pulse 84 beats. For the first time since his husband was confined to his room, more than a week ago, Mrs. Bard was out of the hotel for a short time this morning.

She went for a ride, leaving the Senator in charge of the nurses.

King Leopold Refused to Meet Princess at Queen's Bier.

Unhappy Young Woman Issues a Statement About Scandal.

HER MARRIAGE THE CAUSE OF TROUBLE.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 22.—The scandal arising from the revival of the family quarrel between King Leopold and his daughter, the Princess Stephanie (Countess of Lonyaya), beside the bier of the late Queen Marie Henriette at Spa yesterday, is agitating all classes.

Popular sympathy on all sides is expressed for the Princess, who, although deeply affected by the incident, makes no complaint. The Princess herself has given out a simple statement of the facts, as follows:

"The precise facts are these: I was praying at the bier of the Queen when some one came about 4 o'clock to tell me the King would not receive me. I immediately left the death chamber. I had no interview with his Majesty.

"I was at Cromer, England, when I learned of the death of the Queen. Like a loving daughter and a patriot, I hurried to Spa, to render the last honors to my mother.

"As the King has caused an intimation to be conveyed that he does not desire my presence, I am going to Calais, where my husband will meet me. Thence I shall probably return to England. There was no scene between the King and myself at Spa.

"It was hoped by the public, who applauded Princess Stephanie's march with the Count Lonyaya, that the death of the Queen would lead to healing the rupture, but the incident at Spa has served to demonstrate that the King is as irreconcilable as ever to what he has designated as a misalliance, even after the approval of the Austrian Emperor, Francis Joseph.

Princess Stephanie started for Calais this afternoon. She was escorted a most enthusiastic crowd by large crowds at the railroad station, while cries of "Vive la Comtesse" were raised, to which she replied: "I thank you with all my heart."

Then, apparently overcome by the popular demonstration, the Princess burst into tears.

During the whole railroad journey from Spa to this city, the Princess was shaken with sobs, and arrived here nearly prostrated. This morning she attended a special requiem mass ordered by herself.

On leaving the church she was sympathetically greeted by the assembled crowd.

PUNERAL SERVICES.

SPA, Belgium, Sept. 22.—The funeral services preparatory to the removal of the remains of Queen Marie Henriette to Brussels were held this morning in a church here.

The coffin later was placed in a car and was completely hidden by flowers.

King Leopold, leaning on the arm of Prince Albert of Flanders, the heir presumptive to the throne, followed on foot, the Ministers, Generals and other distinguished persons bringing up the rear.

The route of the funeral procession was lined with troops and crowded with people.

BLOODY FIND MADE BY POLICE.

Articles Found in Trunk Tell How William Hooper Young Murdered Mrs. Anna Pulitzer—Stiletto Recovered.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—When the trunk of William Hooper Young, for whom the police of the whole country are looking in connection with the murder of Mrs. Anna Pulitzer, was opened at police headquarters today, there were found in it a sword-shaped stiletto with a blade eight inches long, and an ivory handle four inches long; the half dozen mixed cakes which the woman left her apartments to buy; her set of false teeth, with one tooth missing; her skirts and underclothing; a switch of light colored hair; a pair of gloves; the missing bedclothing from Young's apartments; two men's opera hats; a pair of blue and white corsets; the woman's garters, etc., the black silk skirt, polka dot waist, the woman's slippers, her hat, three pairs of men's shoes, Young's trousers, coat, vest and undershirt, a piece of writing paper on which was printed "I. Solomon, 305 First street, Hoboken, Out-fitter"; some red pepper, a broken comb, hairpins, a bent safety pin and a newspaper clipping of September 10.

As soon as the lid of the trunk was lifted, it could be seen that the inside of the receptacle was covered with blood.

The knife or stiletto was about the first article lifted out. The blade was covered with blood its whole length. After that each article of clothing was lifted out and carefully examined.

The woman's skirts, underclothes, a couple of handkerchiefs and several small pieces of rags were found to be saturated with blood, as was the bedclothing from Young's room.

Young's trousers, which showed bloodstains, were wet, and Assistant District Attorney Garvan said it appeared to him as if Young, after the murder, had washed his trousers and packed them into the trunk without letting them dry. The man's undershirt was also covered with bloodstains.

It was remarked at the time the paper was found in the trunk that the man now in the custody of the Derby, Conn., police, had red pepper in his possession.

Captain Titus says that every article that is missing from Young's apartments was found in the trunk.

The body of Mrs. Anna Pulitzer was shipped today from the Jersey City morgue to Perth Amboy, N. J., where her parents live.

IDENTITY NOT CERTAIN.

DERBY, Conn., Sept. 22.—Chief of Police Gillette, who has a man under arrest on suspicion that he is William Hooper Young, wanted in New York on account of the murder of Mrs. Anna Pulitzer, was still uncertain this morning regarding the identity of his prisoner. Although in many ways the man answers the description of Young, his complexion is not extremely dark and the teeth of the prisoner do not correspond with the description.

The prisoner talked readily this morning and with a good deal of intelligence. He says his name is Bert Edwards, that he is 26 years of age, and formerly lived with his stepfather, Henry Carruthers, and his mother, at 620 Sixth street, Portland, Ore.

The prisoner said that for the last two weeks he had been wandering about Connecticut, having come to this State from Springfield, Mass. He said he had been in Winsted and Ridgefield.

The fact that red pepper was found in his trunk and in some of the clothes which were in the trunk, in conjunction with the report that red pepper was found in the pockets of the clothing of the man arrested by the police of Derby, Conn., led Captain Titus to alter his plan not to send a man to Derby at present.

Detective Peter Finley, accompanied by a man who knows Young, was dispatched to Connecticut to see if the suspect is Young and if so to bring him back to New York as soon as the proper legal proceedings have been taken.

William F. S. Hart, who has been retained to defend Young, received today the following cablegram from John W. Young, the father of William Hooper Young:

"PARIS, Sept. 21.—(Please give this to the newspapers and request publication): To William Hooper Young: I hear you are suspected of a heinous crime and being sought for. I advise you to surrender to the officers of the law, facing the charge like a man. I have engaged counsel for your defense. No one knowing you can believe you guilty. You owe it to yourself, your family and the religion you forsook to prove your innocence. If you take this course we will stand by you. (Signed)

"JOHN W. YOUNG."

Elders Quarrie, Stow and Peter, some of the Mormons who have been occupying one of the Young apartments, were closed for some time with Police Captain Schmittberger.

The suspected prisoner hourly becomes more nervous, and at times his condition is pitiable. Most of the time he spends sitting on his cell bench with his face covered by his hands, but he twitches spasmodically and sometimes he is noticed to shake violently. Now and then he paces up and down the cell, stopping occasionally and casting anxious glances about him.

The authorities are maintaining the closest watch possible over the man. Commenting upon his demeanor, one of the officials said this afternoon: "If this man is not Young, it is certain that he has some reason for fear."

YOUNG IS CAPTURED.

DERBY, Sept. 22.—The following details of the identification were obtained. Ernest is employed as a sign painter or artist at a physical culture school in Brooklyn. Some time ago William Hooper Young was employed there in addressing circular envelopes, and Ernest thus became acquainted with him. After examining the suspect closely, Ernest said: "I am sure he is Young. His hair is the same, his mouth is the same, his voice is the same, his hands are the same. I am positive about it. I have ordered the man held by the Connecticut authorities and I have just wired New York for a boy who will merely come on to corroborate the identification made by Ernest. The boy summoned is a bath-attendant who daily rubbed William Hooper Young. The boy is expected late today. The prisoner did not stand the ordeal well. In addition to trembling violently, he was almost steaming with perspiration. During the examination water literally dripped off his finger tips."

JUDGE OGDEN SCORES DEFENSE

YOUNG BROWN IS GIVEN THE LIMIT FOR SIMPLE ASSAULT.

In sentencing Charles Brown, the young Berkeley blacksmith who fired three shots at C. E. Lillard while he was escorting two young ladies home, Judge Ogden this morning took occasion to read the young offender a lecture. He said:

"I am sorry that it is not within my power to give you a larger sentence than three months, which is the limit for simple assault. Your attack upon the young men and the two ladies he was escorting was cowardly. The defense made by the attorney for the defense is one which hardly commends itself to this Court. You are fortunate that you were not convicted of a more serious crime. It is the judgment of this court that you be imprisoned in the County Jail for a period of three months."

Brown's attorney made a plea for mercy.

BRUTE INSTINCT IN MAN. CANDIDATE LANE'S SPEECH.

People see a herd of cattle or a band of horses take flight without reason and break into a wild stampede, and they wonder at the foolishness of animals. They marvel that the fear-crazed brutes should blindly dash themselves against obstacles only to be killed and maimed, and trample each other in a mad effort to escape the nameless terror behind.

Yet human beings do the same thing, in hundreds of cases human misdeeds have stamped because of trivial causes. In these unreasonable cruelties the ordinary instincts of humanity are lost and only the animal instinct of self preservation remains. Man becomes a wild beast again, and flees from imaginary dangers as furiously and madly as his primitive ancestors did from the real dangers of the primal forest.

Thursday night fifteen hundred delegates to a negro church conference in Alabama stamped because the audience mistook the word "fight" shouted aloud for the cry of fire. Nearly two hundred were killed or injured in the panic that followed. The panic was utterly without reason or cause, but the consequences were horrible. The same number of cattle could not have been more insane from terror.

But the white race is equally susceptible to these freaks of fear. Not long ago several hundred girls employed in a Philadelphia factory took flight from a trifling cause and trampled each other to death in a mad rush to escape. They fought and tore each other like wild beasts in trying to crowd down a narrow hallway.

The working classes are no wiser to be seized with panic than are the educated and cultured. At a great fete in Paris a few years ago there was a similar exhibition that horrified the world. The greatest dances in Europe were trodden ruthlessly under foot by men deemed the pink of courtesy and civility. Men who would ordinarily have fought to the death to protect a lady, lost all sense of pride and honor when their reason and courage fled, and became again as beasts of the field.

The finest disciplined armies are not impervious to these sudden attacks of fear that communicate themselves to the mass in an instant like a spark to a powder magazine. It is recorded that Wellington's victorious army in Spain was once seized with a mad terror because sudden alarm was given of an imaginary surprise by the enemy, and fled, horse, foot and artillery, in one inextricable rout till fairly exhausted. One night the Army of the Potomac was startled from its slumbers by a panic and took flight in the darkness only to find that they had run from the terrors of their imagination. The Confederate Army under Bragg had similar experiences in 1863, old campaigners who had felt the shock of battle scores of times flying like startled hares from nothing.

The theater panic has produced horrors without number. Every civilized country has its list of calamities resulting panics in large popular gatherings. This predisposition to panic or hysterical tendency in the human race is so well recognized that elaborate means of escape are provided in all modern public buildings, in case of stampedes. Man's intelligence can in a measure provide against the consequences of man giving way to the brute instinct of terror, but civilization has thus far failed to eradicate the mysterious impulse of alarm and flight without adequate cause.

The proposition to abolish the Sub-Treasuries and place their deposits in the National Banks is naturally received with great favor by National bankers, but how about other bankers? They will probably be inclined to oppose a project which will place such enormous amounts of Government cash at the disposal of a favored class. The Sub-Treasury system is clumsy and inefficient, but it has its uses, and it is scarcely wise to abolish it to strengthen the hands of private capitalists who are in active competition with other private capitalists. It is said the President favors the new scheme, but we decidedly doubt it. We prefer to hear from the President or Secretary Shaw directly on that point.

Are the entrance examinations at Annapolis too severe? Something appears to be wrong or more than one-half the appointees would not be rejected because of inability to pass the scholastic examination. What gives the enormous proportion of rejections a peculiar cast is the fact that a great majority of the cadets now appointed to the Academy win their appointments in competitive examinations. Is there any jugglery in either the local examining boards or at the Academy?

Tammany Hall has at last got a new boss that Tammany can understand and who understands Tammany. He is Charles F. Murphy, who began life as a car driver, amassed a fortune in the liquor business, and became a power in politics. Like all successful Tammany leaders, he is a good listener but talks little. Croker got along all right till he began to talk and attempted to cut a dash as a fine gentleman.

So, it appears that Admiral Higginson did not delay the naval maneuvers to await the pleasure of a visit from the Duchess of Marlborough. The duchess did not visit the Admiral's flagship on that eventful occasion and there was no delay. Some imaginative correspondent deserves a leather medal for inventing a story very creditable to the navy.

Children's Hats

Monday, Sept. 22nd.

Their selection Their kind Their price

Special emphasis was laid this season by our New York millinery buyer upon the purchase of children's hats. The results of her efforts are now on show. No Oakland house, indeed, we are confident no San Francisco house, now offers so large and varied a selection of hats for boys and girls.

There are soft, befringed silken caps for the toddlers; broad brimmed school and play hats of felt for the little chaps and their sisters; and creations for the larger girls, designed with as much care as are the Paris patterns of their mothers.

There is as great a range of prices as there is of styles, but all are moderate, and some surprisingly low.

WRIGHT F. KELSEY

CALLED BY DEATH

Wright F. Kelsey, an old resident of this city, died yesterday at his late residence, 765 Fifteenth street, in the 74th year of his age. He was a native of Rockaway, N. J., and came to this city about forty years ago. He acquired quite an amount of property near Twenty-fifth street and Telegraph avenue, and built what has been known for a long time as the Kelsey House. Some years ago he moved to Fresno, but returned to this city some time prior to his death. His decease was occasioned by paralysis.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

FRANKLIN K. LANE OPENS THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CAMPAIGN

Chairman W. W. Foote Says the "Old Bills" Will Stand Together Issues of the Campaign Discussed by the Democratic Leader.

The Democratic campaign was opened in this city in the Tabernacle last Saturday night by a meeting at which the principal speaker of the evening was Franklin K. Lane, the candidate for Governor.

There were present on the platform a number of Democrats, among whom were John J. McDonald, chairman of the Democratic County Central Committee of Alameda; W. W. Foote, John K. Wise, R. M. Fitzgerald, W. H. French, Charles Buchanan, Hiram Lutz, E. M. Ralston.

J. J. McDonald introduced W. W. Foote as the chairman of the evening, and Mr. Foote spoke at some length as follows and evoked considerable enthusiasm.

W. W. FOOTE'S SPEECH.

"I met the able and distinguished Republican at the door and he is probably in the audience. I refer to the Honorable George C. Perkins, United States Senator from this State. I believe he is one of the kickers on the reciprocity business. He will, however, I believe, support the ticket, but there are a great many Republicans who will not."

"Which ever way the election goes in November, we will have an Oakland boy for Governor. But it remains for Alameda county to produce the officeholders' trust. There have been many changes in order to advance this trust. A few months ago Congressman Metcalf and Assessor Dalton were at swords' points over the nomination for Congress. Now they are the best of friends, so it is said. Nishnamer and Lukens lack each other, but now they are as cooling doves; but they wouldn't trust each other around the corner, just the same. (Laughter.)"

"A month and a half ago it would have been an idle dream to have any Democrat to go up against the Republican majority of 40,000 composed of people who have made money out of a Republic, and the trust, and service and the like. Now, however, a victory seems assured. Uncle Jake Neff has named a Flint committee to manage a Pardee campaign. (Laughter.)"

"There has been an antiquated chestnut sprung about 'Old Bills' being taken back by the Democrats. Even my witty friend, Ned Hamilton, seems to have taken this as funny. I will say that I for one have never been out of the Democratic party. I have found marching shoulder to shoulder in this campaign, together with the young Bobs and Mikes, and with their united strength they will be invincible."

"Mr. Foote concluded with a quotation from a poem which was appropriate to the occasion."

FRANKLIN K. LANE.

Franklin K. Lane was then introduced and spoke as follows:

"It may seem a little singular for me to say so, but I do feel a little more confident of success than possibly Mr. Foote. (Applause.)"

"I have been talking to all the workmen here, and I have found them to be like this, but down at places where they work. Today I went down to West Oakland, where in my boyhood, I enjoyed the day with a trust, and standing upon a barrel, an empty one, that is the only kind we have in this Democratic campaign. I talked to 300 or 400 men in the mill and found that they are all right. They are confident of Democratic success this year."

"Two days ago, I was in Sacramento, and I found men who had spent their waning tendencies, who were tired of waging considerable sums of money, betting that Sacramento would go for the Democratic nominee for Governor. Across the state I found the same cheerful hope of confidence spread, not alone among Democrats but among men who are not affiliated with any party, and who are tired, yes, thousands of Republicans."

"I suppose, in coming before you, I am expected to say something nice of Oakland. I remember one of the first political speeches I ever heard in my life. I heard in this city delivered by Senator McDonald. That is one of the acts of the political speaker and political candidate, to establish, at once, a common interest among his audience. That is just a little bit of false, a good deal of which goes in politics."

"For at least four years, you will be deluged with the privilege and honor of my company, and I know in saying that, you will fully appreciate whatever sacrifice there may be on my part, because, in doing that, I will allow you to retain among you one of your most distinguished citizens. (Laughter.)"

THAT INTRODUCTION.

"Mr. Foote in introducing me, spoke of me as an Oakland boy. That is true. I have played marbles in the streets of Oakland, and have gone fishing, swimming and to school here. I don't know that I earned all of us have joined together and formed something which may be a great factor for doing good to every one."

"The speaker then addressed the audience, that they are open to argument, confident of meeting the Republicans in that sunny Southern hall, and that the Democratic ticket providing the man is known to be fearless and able to run the government of the State."

OTHER SPEAKERS.

After the applause had subsided, Chairman Foote introduced Samuel Butler, president of the Grass Valley Miners' Union, who made a nice little workingmen for Lane, stating that he was the friend of the working man, and that his election would mean much for the future progress of the State."

"The speaker, 'that Franklin Lane is an honest man and a fearless one. In 1893, when the great crisis came, Franklin K. Lane was conducting a newspaper in Tacoma. At that time, when all other newspapers were endeavoring to reduce wages, Mr. Lane said, addressing his co-workers of the paper: 'Gentlemen, let us begin at the top and reduce wages. I will do it, and gentlemen, while our opponent was turning the hose on Coxe's army, Franklin K. Lane was reducing wages. (Laughter.)'

"The speaker then addressed the audience, that they are open to argument, confident of meeting the Republicans in that sunny Southern hall, and that the Democratic ticket providing the man is known to be fearless and able to run the government of the State."

THE MEETING THEN ADJOURNED.

Frank C. Jordan, of Oakland, Alameda county, the regular Republican nominee for Clerk of the Supreme Court, is in Eureka in the interest of the candidacy of himself and lifelong friend, Dr. George C. Pardee, who, by the way, is a fellow townsman of Mr. Jordan's. Accompanying Mr. Jordan is Colonel J. E. Cuddy, of San Francisco, who is the genial Oaklander's mascot, manager and bosom friend combined.

Mr. Jordan and the Colonel arrived on the Pomona Monday and since their arrival they have seen more of Humboldt than many of the oldest residents. Yesterday Mr. Jordan and Colonel Cuddy formed a merry party of four, the others being Assembly member George T. Rolley, Assembly member Collector Walter E. Price, of Sonoma county, which spent the day in the Bel River valley, the most remarkable valley, says Mr. Jordan, he has ever visited. Attorney Rolley chaperoned the excursionists and he did his part well, Portuna, Fernalde, Grizzly Bluff, Alton and Loleta being visited in turn and some good hard licks put in for the party. A late arrival last night from the section visited informed the Times that Jordan and Pardee cards were stuck up from one end of the valley to the other, which would indicate that Mr. Jordan is still a hustler. Today the gentlemen will visit Arcata and Blue Lake and on Thursday will leave for Yreka, from where he will proceed to Sacramento, to see if Colonel Cuddy survives the ride horseback over the mountains.

Mr. Jordan has chosen Humboldt county for himself to open his campaign, and he has selected a very pleasant call from Mr. Jordan and the other members of the party, including the Colonel, who is a half fellow well met, and a mascot, more than ordinary charm.—Exchange.

SMASHED HIS FINGER.

George McHale, the well known comedian, who was yesterday met with a very painful accident one day last week. McHale was assisting a friend in loading a wagon with empty chicken crates. He was on the wagon catching the crates as they were thrown up. One crate slipped and fell on his hand, crushing the member badly. The entire finger was burst open and the nail nearly torn away. He has been in the hospital since, and is unable to work.

PROHIBITIONISTS TO MAKE A CAMPAIGN

The prohibitionists opened headquarters at 1219 Broadway on September 15th and have begun a wide-spread campaign of literature and public speaking. The candidate for Governor, Theodore D. Kanouse of Glendale, who has a national reputation as a platform orator, is a prominent member of the G. A. R. of Southern California, will take the stump next week and tour the State in company with the famous Prohibitionist and temperance singers, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Sisson of Riverside.

The first rally of the campaign will be at San Jose. Then they will visit Alameda, Berkeley, Oakland, San Francisco, Napa, Vallejo, Winters, Woodland, Chico, Sacramento, Newcastle, Stockton, Fresno, and other valley towns, whence they will go forth, finishing the campaign in Southern California.

Other speakers who will do more or less platform work for the party are: Wile J. Phillips, editor of the California Voice; Rev. E. E. Leonardson, of San Francisco; J. H. Leonardson, of the Elgin District; James C. Minors of Pomona; Mrs. Mae Guthrie, Rev. J. W. Webb of Fresno; Rev. D. D. Thurston of Santa Clara and other local workers.

The California Voice, State organ of the party will be widely circulated by means of a party subscription. Some general hundred having already been secured and sent in.

The Prohibitionist Alliance is another feature of the work which will receive the close attention of the Committee. Thirty-three of these societies have already been formed, and the state and new ones are reported each week.

BOY ROOM WORKER IN POLICE COURT

Fred Albert Taylor, the seventeen-year-old youth arrested by Detective Shorey on suspicion of being the thief who had been robbing the city, was in the Police Court to listen to the reading of the complaint of David Jones charging him with burglary.

Up on the statement of Prosecutor Leach that the complaining witnesses in the three other cases against the youth did not care to press the charges, the court ordered they be stricken from the calendar.

Taylor will be examined on the remaining charge on September 23d.

FATHER LOSES CUSTODY OF HIS MINOR CHILD.

Frank Owen, a man about town, by a decree of the Superior Court of Santa Cruz county has been deprived of the custody of his 12-year-old child, Beatrice, and his former wife, Carrie Owen, has been made the guardian of the child.

Attorney J. R. Fitch is now taking steps toward obtaining possession of the child, which is at present in the custody of a sister of Owen.

HE STIRS UP THE VOTERS IN THE WILDS OF HUMBOLDT COUNTY. BOXING NIGHT AT THE WEST OAKLAND CLUB—OAKLAND BOYS WIN THE GAME AT SACRAMENTO—SPORTING NOTES.

The announcement of a grand fall bowling tournament has just been made to take place at the Oakland Bowling Alleys on October 8 and 9.

The events will be for five-man teams on Wednesday the 8th and doubles and singles on Thursday the 9th.

The prospects are bright for a big tournament as teams will enter from San Jose, Vallejo, and quite a number from San Francisco, as well as several Oakland teams.

The local clubs are getting in form to enter the American tournament on the American alleys, San Francisco on the 27th.

Four back is becoming a popular game now on the Oakland alleys. E. L. Dole and L. S. Hughes received prizes for scores of 75.

Recent high scores were made by J. U. Bird 225 and P. G. Nelson 202.

WEST OAKLAND FIGHTS POSTPONED

SOME CLEVER CONTESTS WILL BE SEEN AT THE CLUB ON SEPTEMBER 30.

The West Oakland Athletic Club has changed the date for its coming boxing contests and will hold its show on Tuesday evening, September 30. This gives the contestants more time to get into first class condition.

The first on the program will be several try outs and all know what kind of affairs they are which are seen at the club. These are to be followed by the goes for decision and which should provide some of the best bouts seen in Oakland for some time.

The first bout is four rounds between Young McConnell, W. O. A. S. versus Kid Flynn S. F. A. C. Young McConnell recently fought Frank George at the club and made a host of friends by his splendid showing and can be depended upon to give a good account of himself.

His opponent Flynn is well known in San Francisco, where he has met and defeated some of the best men at his weight. He will give McConnell a very hard fight. The next bout of six rounds between William Bever, Reliance, versus George Brown, W. O. A. C. This bout is attracting a great deal of attention and will no doubt be a lively affair as both are good men and mix things from start to finish. The main event of ten rounds is between Louis Long, Reliance versus Spider Welsh.

CHICAGO FIGHTERS WILL NOT COME

MATCH THAT WAS PLANNED FOR THE ACME CLUB IS DECLARED OFF.

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—The Benny Yanger-Abe Attel match, scheduled to take place at Oakland, Cal., October 4, has been declared off by John Hertz, Yanger's manager. Yanger is threatened with an injured vein on his thigh, which may necessitate a slight operation.
